Property Lawyer / Conveyancer

Description

Milne Moser Solicitors are seeking a Residential Property Lawyer to join our gold standard property team, as demand for our services continues to grow.

Applicants should be able to manage a varied caseload, with the minimum of supervision. Ideally, applicants should have experience in unregistered titles, leaseholds, and transfers of part but supervision will be provided where necessary.

We deal with a very varied caseload, including residential and commercial con veyancing, transfers of part, the grant and variation of both residential and commercial leases, farm transfers and overage agreements.

Experience with all or some of these elements will be considered.

Good IT and drafting skills are essential.

We are a family-friendly firm, so flexible working is usually possible, and both full and part-time hours can be considered.

This is a highly engaging role, providing the opportunity to work on legal matters for our clients across the region, with the opportunity to work with a great team.

In return, we offer a competitive salary, generous holiday entitlement, pension scheme and health plan, as well as being based in an area of outstanding natural beauty.
